AUDITOR'S REPORT FOR MAY 1909.

Dated 18th June 1909.

1. There seem to be two watchmen for Health Camps. What work they are doing? Probably they were engaged when the plague was in full swing. Now, I think, their services may be utilized for some other useful purposes.

2. Batta Bill of the Health Officer for Rs. 60-4-0 is paid from the Municipal Funds. In his bill, it is clearly stated that he went there on Exhibition duty. Such being the case, I don't see the reason why that amount to be paid by the Municipal Funds.

3. Conservancy Cess account not seen, as the President has undertaken to do it.

4. Collection.—Very good.

5. The explanation of the Health Officer for the last month's audit not yet come as promised in the meeting.

(Sd.) B. K. GARUDACHAR,
Municipal Councillor and Auditor.
